Hello hello
I like your smile
Hello hello
Shall we talk awhile?
Would you like some of my tangerine?
I know I'll never treat you mean
Never knew how I'd meet you
Didn't know how to greet you
When I saw you look that way
I knew I had to say
"Hello" (Hello) "Hello" (Hello)
[Interlude]
Always longed to say "I love you"
Always been too high above you
Now I'm not so far away
Now at last I can say
"Hello" (Hello) "Hello" (Hello)
You got pretty hair
(You got pretty hair)
Hello hello
Can'tcha tell I care?
Would you like some of my tangerine?
I know I'd never treat you mean
Oh no
I know I would never treat you mean
