Under my skin, in through my bones
Lives a little man that nobody knows
You can't talk to him
He's busy talking through me

Under my soul, in through my lies
Live a little man inside of my eyes
You can't talk to him
He's busy killing off me

My days feel like they're numbered
Countdown till I go under Think fast! How do you kill off something I've created in me?

You scare easier than me
You'll run, get away from me
My love is failing me faster than my failure's leaving me

She faced off with the demons
War in two human beings
She ran, never to come back
Hear the voices trailing her

Holy God above me
Save me, show me you love me
This is worth nothing to me if my head is caving in

Hold me close, hold me down
It's coming over tonight
Hold me close, hold me down
You don't know who I am
PsychoMan

Under my skin, in through my bones
Lives a little man that nobody knows
You can't talk to him
He's busy talking through me

Under my soul, in through my lies
Live a little man inside of my eyes

You can't talk to him
He's busy talking through me

My days feel like they're numbered
Countdown till I go under
Think fast! How do you kill off something I've created
in me?

You scare easier than me
You'll run, get away from me
My love is failing me faster than my failure's leaving
me

Hold me close, hold me down
It's coming over tonight
Hold me close, hold me down
You don't know who I am
