I've checked every train, sunshine or rain
I guess he don?t like westbound trains

Stopped down by the depot this morning
But the train had already gone
The man said, "The train just coasted on through Dropped the mail and moved on"

If he?s ever comin' back
I wish it was now that he did
I've checked every train, sunshine or rain
I guess he don?t like westbound trains

He boarded an eastbound last season
And this is the place where I stood
And waved as he rode off into the sunrise
He could ride one back if he would

If he?s ever comin' back
I wish it was now that he did
I've checked every train, sunshine or rain
I guess he don?t like westbound trains

If he?s ever comin' back
I wish it was now that he did
I've checked every train, sunshine or rain
I guess he don?t like westbound trains
I guess he don?t like westbound trains
