I don't feel rejected but I feel neglected
You know me too well
But you keep twisting my arm

There was a time when we had everything
You know my weakness
To push me around

We need to talk, nothing too serious
I just can't keep this inside me no more.

So live hated, not much to brag about
But I have always been cool with myself
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
To stop me I'm out in the cold
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
You've been holding on for much too long

I got a call, nothing too serious
Don't even know you but we're keeping in touch
So I've been jealous, not much to brag about
But I've always been true to myself
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
To stop me I'm out in the cold
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
You've been holding on for much too long now

I don't feel rejected but I feel neglected
You know me too well
But you keep twisting my arm

There was a time when we had everything
You know my weakness
To push me around

So live hated, not much to brag about
But I have always been cool with myself
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
To stop me I'm out in the cold
It takes more than a heartbeat to get me
You've been holding on for much too long now...much too long now...much too long now

It takes more than a heartbeat to get me

You've been holding on
For much too long
Now
