"Pass The Flashlight"

It goes like this: where's the headlights?
I don't know Danny
And am I dead right? What about the flashlight
It's right here Danny
Well pass it around and hold on tight.
Is it the daytime? What about the greytime?
So pass the flashlight, well hold on tight 'cause we're coming home
Are we winding up the watch and the clock in the back of the hall?
I don't know Susy
Minute by minute watching summer just turn into fall Remember all the times and the rhymes about nothing at all?
I'm not sure Susy, I'll pass around the light and we'll try to make it to last call
It's on right?
I don't know Danny
What about the batteries too? You say there's nothing to do?
It's right here Danny
Well just pass it around and it's all new. 612?
It's right here Danny 651?
It's right here Danny
So where's the twin cities?
It's right here Danny Well hold on tight 'cause we're coming home! That's how it goes
