So take everything that I have,
And never give it back to me,
I never want to see your face,
It's everything that's in between cause I,
Don't know, if this is the best thing for me,
But I'm willing to take a chance on you again.

Cause I'll never be,
I'll never be there,
So don't you ever be afraid

So, I, will never be the same now that you're gone,
Can, I ever have the strength to make this right,
Let's make this, let's make this last this time

They way you are is the way you'll be,
The things in life,
That make no sense, are the things that work out in the end,
Now, where to go from here,
Is anybody out there?
Or am I talking to myself again

Cause I'll never be,
I'll never be there,
So don't you ever be afraid
Cause you might loose it in the end

So, I, will never be the same now that you're gone,
Can, I ever have the strength to make this right,
Let's make this, let's make this last this time
