I tried to be there for you,
But it's hard when you just don't have a clue,
About what's going on,
Don't give up because I know you'll make it through

Hold on to what you have
And don't let go

Tell me why, you feel this way
I've looked deep inside but you run and your hide so,
Tell me why, you feel this way,
Things wont be the same now that you're gone

You gave to me your heart,
And I let it fall apart,
So look into my eyes,
Cause this time I won't lie

Hold on to what you have
And don't let go

Tell me why, you feel this way
I've looked deep inside but you run and your hide so,
Tell me why, you feel this way,
Things wont be the same now that you're gone
