Take it slow and take your time,
And everything will be just fine,
Everything you need you have,
Is hidden somewhere deep inside

Time won't wait for you,
And I hope you understand,
Because I'm leaving here tonight,

You'll never know how bad it feels to be on your own
and be just like me,
So you'll never know how bad it hurts,
To know, to know that you don't need me,

So what else can I say?
So things wont end this way,

And I hope you understand,
Because I'm leaving here tonight,

You'll never know how bad it feels to be on your own
and be just like me,
So you'll never know how bad it hurts,
To know, to know that you don't need me,

And I hope you understand,
Because I'm leaving here tonight
