I'm not sure if this will sound absurd
But you're at the top of my list
Of a million things that I prefer
I know you know no one understands me
Miracle - I adore thee.
You rescue my integrity

There's no telling what I would do
Waking up to a world without you

If you promise me you'll stay in my vicinity
Then I'll be that person I swore I would be

Please listen to my slack-jawed glossy eyed ramblings
Although my words lost value
I think that now while it's down I suggest investing
You know I know you like no one else does
Jellybean be my queen bee we can start our own colony

There's no telling what I would do
Waking up to a world without you

If you promise me you'll stay in my vicinity
Then I'll be that person I swore I would be
If you promise me you'll stay in my vicinity
Then I'll be that person I swore I would be

I deserve no sympathies
I used up all my apologies
You deserve so much more than me
But if you say you'll stay
That's what I'm gonna be

If you promise me you'll stay in my vicinity
Then I'll be that person I swore I would be
If you promise me you'll stay in my vicinity
Then I'll be that person I swore I would be
