Talk to me like there was no suffering
Like I didn't tumble, leaper, just to lose another keeper
Like I was who I used to be

Oh, bear with me. I had to try everything
That could infiltrate my hide. I demanded, he supplied
Thus began my own cozy quarantine

I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage

I lost my friends. I stole too much love from them.
I return it all in time. After all it wasn't mine.
My evil glitch won't let me switch from pretend

I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage
I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage, in my internal sabotage, oh

I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage
I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage
I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage, in my internal sabotage
I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage
I don't want to stay scared, living in the deep end
Burn off this mirage in my internal sabotage, oh
