In the soft moonlight you're throwing up everywhere
again

I wish that I could say you're gonna be okay,
But then I wouldn't get my sweet revenge
It's a crazy way, the forces seem to bail us out
Every little tone and every shaky moan
Now I really see what you're all about

I've got the medicine you wanted
You've got nothing I need
It's funny how you're choking now
That's what you get for double-crossing me

It's a lesson learned I hope you never love again
I wish that I could say it's gonna be okay,
But that would take me actually being your friend

I've got the medicine you wanted
You've got nothing I need
It's funny how you're choking now
That's what you get for double-crossing me

I've got the medicine you wanted
You've got nothing that I need
It's funny how you're choking now
That's what you get for double-crossing me

Don't get me wrong, I think about you all the time
That doesn't mean that I enjoy you spoiling my mind

I've got the medicine you wanted
You've got nothing I need
It's funny how you're choking now
That's what you get for double-crossing me

I got the medicine you wanted
You ruined it for me
It's funny how you're choking now
That's what you get for double-crossing me
