So you think you're mind's made up
'Cause he sold you a bill of goods
Now you think he's everything
Tend to fall for his lines, yes, you would

His standard of living, his social rating
Girl, there's nothing he can't afford
He made you think I ain't it
But when it's love, I can give you more

He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do
He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do, like I do, like I do

Diamond rings excite you
Expensive furs warm you through and through
But all of these put together
Can never thrill you as much as I do

Now he can make you a movie star
He can put your name up in lights
But these things do no good
When you need the loving at night

He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do
He don't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do

Diamond rings and all those things
Social rating ain't nothing, baby
Well, well, well, well

He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do
He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do

He won't love you, he can't love you
He'll never love you, baby like I do
He won't love you, he can't love you

He'll never love you, baby like I do
