[Verse 1]

It's a blessing to have your hand to hold it and it's so wonderful knowing that you care how could I make it through the day without you baby you are the light that showed the way when darkness clothed around me you found me

[Chorus]

And honey your the love of my life,
baby you're my sweetie my sugar and spice
you're the love of my life
I'm living for your loving but I can't get enough [x2]

[Verse 2]

Sometimes we have a fight but then we make up and love is stronger than than it ever was before just you and me against the world together baby you are my jewel my precious pearl a treasure true forever and ever

[Chorus]

And honey you're the love of my life
baby you're my sweetie my sugar and spice
you're the love of my life
I'm living for your loving but I can't get enough no...
I'm living for your loving but I cant get enough

You're the love of my life [x2]

I'm living for you're loving but I can't get enough
you're the love of my life
baby you're my sweetie my sugar and spice
You're the love of my life
I'm living for your loving but I can't get enough
You're the love of my life
baby your my sweetie my sugar and spice
you're the love of my life
I'm living for you're loving but I can't get enough
