Sunshine
Coming through the windows and it's so bright
Taking things slow cause we got time
It's finally here I finally feel alive
It's wait I've waited for (It's what I've waited for)
It's been so very long

Can you hear me?
Maybe I should sing more clearly
Somehow I need you near me
I just don't know how to say all these things

Long drives up and back down the coastline
Coming through the windows and it's so bright
Taking things slow cause we got time
It's finally here I finally feel alive
It's wait I've waited for (It's what I've waited for)
It's been so very long

Can you hear me?
Maybe I should sing more clearly
Somehow I need you near me
I just don't know how to say all these things

This is something worth comparing
Something more than ordinary
This is something I will carry
Something more extraordinary

It's what I've waited for
It's what I've waited it for

Can you hear me?
Maybe I should sing more clearly
Maybe I should shout from the mountains
This is about to change everything

Can you hear me maybe?
Maybe I should sing more clearly
Somehow I need you near me
I just don't know how to say all these things [x2]

Can you hear me now [x4]
