You said I gave you butterflies
Then you flew out of my life

When I'm beside you it's enough to blow my mind
I heard you whisper that you wanted to be mine
And I was always hoping that I could find someone like you (someone like you)
The way you take my hand and the way you touch my face
It got me thinking that I don't wanna be no other place
It got me thinking that I have felt someone like you
(someone like you)

But it ain't like that
Lets turn the time back
To when you told me you had to take your heart back
You had me waiting
Anticipating
Everything we could've been

You said I gave you butterflies
Then you flew out of my life, baby
Butterflies
Then you flew out of my life

And in the morning when the sun was coming up
I had you with me never wanting to wake up
And I couldn't let go because I was with someone like
you (someone like you)
But when you flew away it didn't feel right Girl, I was changing and nothing I could take could change your mind
Even though you let me go I still want someone like you
(someone like you)

But it ain't like that
Lets turn the time back
To when you told me you had to take your heart back
Had me waiting
Anticipating
Everything we could've been

You said I gave you butterflies
Then you flew out of my life, baby
Butterflies
Then you flew out of my life

You said I gave you butterflies
Then you flew out of my life, baby
Butterflies
Then you flew out of my life

(Flew out of my life)

But it ain't like that
Lets turn the time back
To when you told me you had to take your heart back
You had me waiting
Anticipating
Everything we could've been

You said I gave you butterflies
Then you flew out of my life, baby
Butterflies
Then you flew out of my life

You said I gave you butterflies
Gave you butterflies
Gave you butterflies
Gave you butterflies
(Gave you butterflies)
Then you flew out of my life
