Looking Out My Window Through The Pain (Mel Street)

I watched from my window
As she slipped from the house
Once again she's leavin'
But Lord she's not to blame

This morning a memory phoned her
And he's a habit she can't break
So 'til she returns I'll wait for her
Looking out my window through the pain

The devil drove the taxi
That carried her away
And it hurts to know she's hung up on
Some guy from yesterday

Once again she's chasin' memories
And I'm losin' everything
But Lord I love her so I'll wait for her
Looking out my window through the pain

I'll pick up the pieces
When he lets her down again
With love and understanding
I'll give her reasons this time to stay

And I'll close my eyes pretending
Maybe some day she will change
Then I won't be left lonely
Looking out my window through the pain

Yes the devil drove a taxi
That carried her away
And it hurts to know she's still hung up on
Some guy from yesterday

Once again she's chasin' memories
And I'm losin' everything
But Lord I love her so I'll wait for her
Looking out my window through the pain
