I wonder who'll turn out the lights
In your world tonight
Whose shoulder will your head
Be restin' on

Will your hungry arms be reachin'
For someone you feel you need
Will that need still be there
When he's gone

As I reach for the switch
That turns out my lights
I wonder who'll turn out the lights
In your world tonight

Has someone found a secret
That I could never find
Is he touchin' that old arms
That I've touched so many times

Is he turning on the woman
I could never satisfy
I wonder who'll turn out the lights
In your world tonight

That I could never find
Is he touchin' that old arms
That I've touched so many times

Is he turning on the woman
I could never satisfy
I wonder who'll turn out the lights
In your world tonight
