[Verse 1]

It was just another ordinary wednesday day
Feeling lost, alittle low inside
Need an angel to guide the way
Two soles from a different life
Destination is yet to say,, let it begin.

[Verse 2]

Well we, sat down beside one another
In a bar where the music played
Stolen glance from a brandy smile
As a whisky came my way
Recollection in the mirrored reflection
In a smokey optic haze,, is when I met you...

[M8]

We talked and talked for hours
As the night time driffed away
Catching clues from one an the music led us astray
Could this be the reason girl
Or is this my lucky day

[Chorus]

[X2]

Glad I met you

[Verse 3]

Well times passed and I feel the same
As the wednesday we first met,
Those eyes and smile to match
Is a love I can't forget
And till this day, you still rock my world
Not a second do I regret
It's thanks to you

[M8]

We talked and talked for hours
As the night time driffed away
Catching clues from one an the music led us astray
Could this be the reason girl
Or is this my lucky day

[Chorus]
[X2]
Glad I met you

Your The first smile in the morning
Your the only name I, m calling.
Instrumental end.
