i'll make my own way
i'd make my own way

don't bother counting on me

loving me

just stand back i'm gone

oh this sorry joke

you're a joke

is all we really need there's nothing that i'd need too late and too bad i'm stuck feeling bad without you i'm a mess without you just don't know

this is really not a joke you're all i really need

and i'm just so bored of wasting my time and i'm just so sick of wasting my time

love and death are always on my mind

love and death are always on my mind

don't bother kissing on me

loving me

oh this sorry joke

there's nothing that i'd bring
