"The Other Side"

Outcast since the day I was born
Never belonged to this world
Walked alone in the shadows
Tried to find a reason
A voice in my head spoke to me;
"Seek the knowledge of mankind, my son"

The other side
Calling me
I must leave
Everything behind
Life is not for me
The other side

Ancient knowledge was shown to me
Closed myself to this world
Walked alone in the shadows
I had found a reason
The voice spoke to me again;
"It is your fate, obey your destiny."

Spreading everything I had learned
Opened myself to this world
Walked alone in the shadows
I had lost the reason
The voice spoke to me one final time;
"Your work is done, time for you to die."
