Take the blame off your back
It's a burden you don't own
Lay your head in my arms
And I will be your home
You can't carry this alone

I just want to love you
I don't want to change you or judge you
I just want to love you
But darling you have to learn to love you too

I won't count every line
This life has carved in you
Your beauty lies in these eyes
Cause I can see the truth
I see the strength in you

I just want to love you
I don't want to change you or judge you
I just want to love you
But darling you have to learn to love you too
I just want to love

You hide behind your mask of stone
But you don't have to be alone
A thousand lives you could have lived
You're the only one you still need to forgive

I just want to love you
I don't want to change you or judge you
I just want to love you
I just want to love you
