(John D. Souther)

Every word on my mind Bobbi is your goodbye.

Black, black, black, black is the day
No sun is shining in my world Bobbi since you went away
Sad, sad, sad, sad is my heart
All my laughters turned to tears Bobbi since we've been apart.

Every pretty flowers turned to brown
They all look my me with their heads bowed down
My heart only sing the saddest songs
Bobbi since you've been gone.

Cry, cry, cry, you know I cry
Every word on my mind Bobbi is your goodbye.

Every pretty flowers turned to brown
They all look my me with their heads bowed down
My heart only sing the saddest songs
Bobbi since you've been gone.

Cry, cry, cry, you know I cry
Every word on my mind Bobbi is your goodbye.

Every word on my mind Bobbi is your goodbye...
