(Jim Rister)

Add one more day to the life we planned together
Say a prayer for the storms we had to weaver
Gently hold my hand a bit tighter
And make this burden of love a little lighter.

Angels speak those words that make my life heaven
Make the roaring sound of loneliness a bit quieter
Darling hold me close and conquer my doubt for mind
Make this burden of love a little lighter.

--- Instrumental ---

Lay by my side hold me to your breast and whisper
Make the thoughts of losing you quickly disappear
In our world make the sunshine so much brighter
And make this burden of love a little lighter.

Angels speak those words that make my life heaven
Make the roaring sound of loneliness a bit quieter
Darling hold me close and conquer my doubt for mind
Make this burden of love a little lighter.

Make this burden of love a little lighter...
