(Ronald McCown)

Keep the cold lonely world to my bedroom for a while Sit here beside me and let me see you smile
For when I'm alone minutes are eternity
So for a few fleeting moments cling to me.

Cling to me and let the sunshine of your sweet love
come in
Before I remember what a fool I have been
Even though we have started a love that just can't be
For a few fleeting moments cling to me.

--- Instrumental ---

Cling to me and let the sunshine of your sweet love
come in
Before I remember what a fool I have been
Even though we have started a love that just can't be
For a few fleeting moments cling to me.

For a few fleeting moments cling to me...
