(Webb Pierce)

I just recieved your letter that you wrote in deep despair
You say your heart is closed to me and you no longer care
What can I do or say to make you change your mind again
Oh, won't you open up your heart and let forgiveness
in.

I'd give the world to hear you say you love me as before
And that the happy yesterday is ours to live once more Let's live again the used to be rewards so happy then Oh, won't you open up your heart and let forgiveness
in.

--- Instrumental ---

I may pretend I never cry to tell the truth I do For sadness came with your goodbye and you're unhappy too
For if it's true you care for me to hide it is a sin
Oh, won't you open up your heart and let forgiveness
in.

Oh, won't you open up your heart and let forgiveness
in...
