(Jay Livingston - Mitchell Parish - Abner Silver)

My window faces the south
I'm almost halfway to heaven
The snow is falling but all I can see
Is fields of cotton smilin' back at me.

Oh, my window faces the south
And though I'm too from that Swanee
I'm never frownin' or down in the mouth
My window faces the south.

--- Instrumental ---

Well, my window faces the south
And though I'm too from that Swanee
I'm never frownin' or down in the mouth
My window faces the south.

Ah, ah, my window faces the south...
