(Ronald McCown - Sammie Ammons)

Last night I met you for the first time
And it seemed to me your love was real
Now I realize that you belong to someone
And it's not right to feel the way I do.

But it's so sweet stolen wine
How I wish you could be mine
I'd been hurt time after time
I love you sweet stolen wine.

--- Instrumental ---

It was wrong to tell you that you love me
When you knew you could never turn out right
But to believe you was so foolish of me
Yes, that we were both victims of the night.

But it's so sweet stolen wine
How I wish you could be mine
I'd been hurt time after time
I love you sweet stolen wine.

I love you sweet stolen wine...
