(Mel Tillis)

There's no wings on you girl you're lost in this world
And I've got a tormented heart
You never could be true and still I worshipped you
And I've got a tormented heart.

I know I must have loved you since you were a baby
And all you've ever done for me was drive me half
crazy
It would surely be a sin to love this much again
'Cause I've got a tormented heart.

--- Instrumental ---

And all you've ever done for me was drive me half
crazy
It would surely be a sin to love this much again
'Cause I've got a tormented heart...
