Business as usual, pay the cost
Business as usual, our biggest loss
Kill each other and no one cares
Blow up nations and no one's scared
Got racist lies and acid skies
That's how they make us
Stay, stay, stay, down girl
State state state down girl
Blow up this bullshit, open eyes
March on the state, smash these lies
Change this class system, raise your voice
End it with your fists if no other choice
With lies, wine, and pills they keep us down
That's how they make us
Stay stay stay down girl
State state state down girl
With non-violent crime they keep us down
