You're calling for me
Talking to me
We're down on our backs and we're looking but
All we can see
Is only the sky
It's only the sky
I keep sharpening pencils girl
Stabbing at the door to your soul
I want just to say what I know
But only words can fit through the hole
All they are is there
I keep falling into this place where
No one knows I'm really there
I need to go into that place it's where
I don't care
We keep watching movies girl
This must be someone else's world
When it pans when it fades when you love when you hate
I got us two glass bottles of coke
One day somethign went down
And waking up in the world
It was surreal
It wasn't so bright
And deep down inside
Something ain't right
But baby baby
You don't have to cry
Cus we've got all of these things in our bones
We've got love
We've got hate
We've got fear
We've got faith
And we've got our lives under control
And all they are is there

I just want tomorrow to get here today
I'm bored and I'm restless and you feel the same
I checked out the weather it seems to be OK
But we don't need no forecast will someone just say
That we're all OK

And we won't be making these same mistakes over and over

I keep falling into this place where
No one knows I'm really there
I need to go into that place it's where
I don't care

(chorus)
