The sun goes down, down below,
And I'm alone here with you in the sweet shadow,
We two, me and you, on time in between to rendezvous,
It's alright little honey blue, I've got the low down on you

The room blooms with the flowers of love,
The perfume hangs above,
It's been a long time long enough,
Rise up rise up love

Your hands uplift,
My soul it's a perfect fit,
We roll the whole way through,
It's like you do it for me like I do it for you

The room blooms with the flowers of love,
The perfume hangs above,
It's been a long time long enough,
Rise up rise up love

I was undone,
Waiting for you,
All the time that you made me do,
I got tongue-tied I couldn't say your name,
I'm just so glad you came

The room blooms with the flowers of love,
The perfume hangs above,
It's been a long time long enough,
Rise up rise up love
