I'm melting down inside
You're falling from the sky
One think I know
Is you'll pull through
Sometimes it feels like we're from the moon
Cus we're not used to all
This gravity pressing down on all
All of the things we do
In all of me in all of you

It's a little electric
It's a mystery
But love is the potion that will cure all of your disease
When shit gets hectic just stay close to me
It might be the only way we might not be lonely

I'm feeling around in here
Stuck in your atmosphere
I can't forget this year
It was a mess
But this mess is crystal clear

And baby you snuffed my fears
And baby you dried all my tears
And we gotta keep going on
Go on
The moon comes up and night but
It's you that keeps lighting me up
You keep lighting me up
You keep lighting me up
You keep lighting me up
You keep lighting me up

(chorus 2x)
