You ask me do I think about you,
You ask me if I think that we are through.
Pete and I are warming the curb,
He asks me do I think about her.
Ask me if I, I wouldn't lie..
The suns coming up,
It's painting the clouds,
It says your name...

On a sexy black train,
I am going away.

You ask me do I think about you,
You ask me if I think that we are through.
Pete and I are warming the curb,
He asks do I still think about her.
You ask how could I be without you,
Well it's the hardest thing that I have to do.
I could even make an excuse,
But I am going to tell you the truth.
Im just a boy being a boy,
I want the world and I want it all
I was afraid

On a sexy black train,
I am going away.
In a sexy black frame,
A picture of you and me
I wont throw it away..

Just for the record you were right.
Just for the record you were right.
Just for the record you were right.
Just hold the pictures tight and you will be alright.

I was afraid!!
On a sexy black train,
I am going away.
