Circles 'round the moon, mean the rain is coming soon
And when she's in the room I am alive
She comes like the dawn, on the sunlight she is bourne
And baby's got the storm on the inside

And she comes down to me

She's a radiohead, she's got waves coming in
And all the things that she said are in dreams echoing
She's a radiohead the whole world is within
She's coming down again

Seek and try to find the secret shelter in her mind
Her silence is unkind to the outside
And when she calls my name I hear the music in the flame
And all her lace awaits to be untied

When she comes down to me

She's a radiohead, she's got waves coming in
And all the things that she said are in dreams echoing
She's a radiohead the whole world is within
And she's coming down again
She blows my four walls in

Tonight I saw her light painted on the pale moonlight
You know she's got me right where she wants me
And angels love to fly they don't bleed and they don't cry
She's only on the high frequency

But she comes down to me

She's a radiohead, she's got waves coming in
And all the things that she said are in dreams echoing
She's a radiohead the whole world is within
And she's coming down again
She blows my four walls in
