Please, please, give me the thing that I want,
The thing, the dream is not enough,
Time, it turns, drives me out of my mind
And you, you are the one

The sun comes, burning into my room
A tomb, black as coal for too long,
Im gone, Ill take the trip that youre on Cause you, you are the one

Love, love theres nothing else that I see
The night, the futures coming for me,
I know, youre high up there, and Im down,
Im down, come on down

Silver blue, I want to make it with you,
With you, tell me what I must do,
Ill do anything under the sun,
And you, you are the one
