I wake up lonely with no direction
I don't know what to do with myself
I can't get across this intersection
Where my fears seem to cross with my health
Gone are the days when I was so amazed
With everything in front of me
Gone are the days when I was so amazed
With everyone I might be
The weight on my back of the world is cold
But I don't know where it goes
The weight on my back of the world is so cold
But I don't know where it goes
I'm gonna give it away
I'm gonna give it away
I'm gonna give it away
But not today

Hey girl
Can you sing the melody to your song?
It's the first day of summer
And I've already worn my winter coat
So long
All of them want just to photograph you
Cus they don't like the way that you move
I just don't want to be photographed
Cus I got caught in the way that we groove
Gone are the days when I was so amazed
With everything in front of me
Gone are the days when I was so amazed
With everyone I might be
I'm gonna give it away
I'm gonna give it away
I'm gonna give it away
But not today

(chorus)

Say what you mean now baby
Mean what you say
You know I wouldn't have it any
Any other way

If I could tell you the truth
Would I lie to you?
If I could tell you the truth
Would I lie to you?

(chorus 2x)
