

The Stremes "Under"

Space and time run
Your head is dust and your heart is spun around
Strange light day night
The way is lost and the road is beneath the ground

Under the blazing sun
It's phasing into one
The centre lines are laid down
New will come
Feel it come
Now

Dreamstate landscape
The steel will rise in the hand that stretches wide
Faceless silence
The storms that move in the eyes that are searching high

Under the maze of light
The colours fade to white
It's returning back to one
New will come
Feel it come
Now

It's a fiery twilight
That keeps you in tonight
We're on the high tide

Under the grey gun sky
Nothing will defy
It's crushing down to one
New will come
Feel it come
New world son
Feel it come
Now
