You know your mindset, has been tearing me up from the inside.

Cause when you play your mind games said there's nowhere for me to run and Hide.

You know your mindset, is the reason I can't get any sleep.

So when you play me next time think about what it's doing to me.

So when I fall to the bottom drop to the bottle everything will seem just

Fine.

Until the next time, you decide, it's time for me to get what's mine.

Your evil ways and your damn Mind Games.

But I can't stop thinking about you it's time for this to change.

You know your mindset, will cause me to turn around and not come back

What's been said and been done can't put these things right back on the Track

So have your way now, cause these choices are not for me to make

And let me know when you realize that all of these are your mistakes

So when I fall to the bottom drop to the bottle everything will seem just

Fine.

Until the next time, you decide, it's time for me to get
what's mine.

Your evil ways and your damn Mind Games.

But I can't stop thinking about you it's time for this to change.

You know your mindset

You know your mindset

You know your mindset
