Can you stop, just to see, the world around if just briefly
And do you know what you do not need, if presented to you blindly Surface comes and surface goes, still life is full of woes
An outside eye will be our guide to take our minds back from this ride

Spitting fire, burning my air, the terms of my consciousness is Causing me to stare, Were running away cause the stakes
Aint no game, the price there is to pay it drives us insane

Sources are, more and more, the causes that drive us Towards our wars The demons inside, inflicting our minds, Stir-ring up idleness of all kinds it's driving us mad when it's Not in our hands so we turn to our earth and it makes us so glad
The fire that burns, a dent in our heads, churning up these Thoughts that make us do it again

Spitting fire, burning my air, you know my consciousness Is causing me to stare Were running away cause the
stakes
Aint no game, the price there is to pay it drives us
insane
Spitting fire, it's drying me out, I'm asking for a hand as I Fall to the ground Spitting fire, you do not know, without
The earth in my hands my life cannot flow

The stu tails bring the fire, the shit that gets you higher
If you don't know us, said you're just a passer byer Cause Our music, the rhythms, is driving you insane

And when you don't have it, it's withdrawal blame For the problems you face, when they got no cure So why do you question this music when you don't know you're not sure You ask me, I'll tell you, said here's what I see The stu tails bring the fire yea the shit that sets you free
