(Confession, confession of a sinner)

You were the one
Looking for true love
I was the one
Looking for thrills

I made believe
That I loved you
That's the confession of a sinner

Love was a game
I was playing
Love?
Your heart was true
So you believed me
That's the confession of a sinner

I thought I was smart
When I broke your heart
But then when the tears filled your eyes
I suddenly knew
It really was true
I loved you
And that was no lie

Now I'm the one
Looking for true love
You are the one
That I need

Darling please say you will forgive me
That's the confession of a sinner
In love

Darling please say you forgive me
That's the confession of a sinner
In love
