Oh mama, you were right.
Oh mama, you were right.
I learned my lesson on shattered hearts
While holding hands in dirty bars
I wish I needed you and listened to your advice

Oh mama, you were right.
Oh mama, you were right.
I don't think I'll fall in love
My hearts been beaten all black and blue
I wish I hadn't gone and wasted my time

There's a million men in the world
Why do I always find the worst one?
There's a million men in the world
Why does the worst man come to me?
There's a million men in the world
Why do I always find the worst one?
I don't know.

Make your mind on it.
Take some time on it
Make those words to hurt me only can.
You were right.
Yeah she was right all along.
Woah
She's the greatst consultant for all things important on love.

There's a million men in the world
Why do I always find the worst one?
There's a million men in the world
Why does the worst man come to me?
There's a million men in the world
Why do I always find the worst one?
I don't know.
