I've been thinking a lot
And it's time I told you
If I feel that this is something real
Cuz I'll be going away
And it's time I promised
To make this last
This is all I have

I've been dreading the thought of moving forward
Let's stay here I won't let you go
I can't take a risk of losing you
This is the rest of our lives
We're planning for

Tell me what you feel
Cuz I swear I feel it too
Just don't give in or give up

So breathe in and breathe out,
Everything's gonna be oh
Breathe in and breathe out,
Everything's gonna be okay

Tell me what you feel
Cuz I swear I feel it too
Just don't give in or give up

So breathe in and breathe out,
Everything's gonna be oh
Breathe in and breathe out,
Everything's gonna be okay
