You know what I'm like
I like to laugh out loud
Drink a little too much
Let my hair down
That something you gotta get used to
Is my naughty side

Now these wild eyes
Will take a look around
But they would never lie
Or every let you down
That's something you gotta get used to
Is my naughty side

I'm no angel but I can be sweet
If you want me to love you, you gotta love this devil in me

Suck it up soak it in babe just remember
Life's too short to complain
Loosen up give in and just surrender
I'm not about to change
It's a part of me I can't hide
My naughty side

I've been known to flirt
I've been known to tease
But baby you're the one
Who's coming home with me
That's something you gotta get used to
It's my naughty side

I can take this halo and make it disappear
If you're looking for a good girl
There's no point in hanging around here

Chorus

You can turn me on if you can let me be
So come along and play with me
And my naughty side, my naughty side

My naughty side, my naughty side

Suck it up soak it in, yeah just get over it
