Great granddad bought this farm in 1923
And I worked this land with my old man
Which was then passed down to me
Through years of drought we stuck it out
Worked as a family
Well it's my home it's all I know
But is that how life should be
So I hope and so I dream
Cos I see

I just wanna to be a rockstar
Flying high over the country
Away from living on the sunburnt plains
Just waiting for the rain to come
Yeah I just wanna be a rockstar and
Wave my worries out the window
Take off and run
I just wanna be a rockstar

Well all my friends left this town
And went out on their own
Yeah the saw the world and I've been told
Every night is all night long
But I sit here and drink my beer
And I write a country song
And I close my eyes I'm in the spotlight
I hear the crowd applaud
So I hope and so I dream
Cos I see

I just wanna to be a rockstar
Flying high over the country
Away from living on the sunburnt plains
Just waiting for the rain to come
Yeah I just wanna be a rockstar and
Wave my worries out the window
Take off and run
I just wanna be a rockstar

And my father says how much I'd miss this ground
But that's the thing I need to figure out

I just wanna to be a rockstar
Flying high over the country
Away from living on the sunburnt plains
Just waiting for the rain to come
Yeah I just wanna be a rockstar and
Wave my worries out the window
Take off and run
I just wanna be a rockstar
