Hey, yeah
Hoo

He's my man
He's my man
He's my man
He's my man

As I go through the week
Counting all the days
Seeing the same old faces
Seeing the same old ways

Now other men mean well
But always bring me down
They have nothing new to say
They're still hangin' 'round

And when I need cheering up
When I'm feeling kinda low

He calls says, "Get dressed"
And I put on my best
Being in his arms
Brings out all my charms
And you can see us glow
Wherever we may go
He's my man

All I need is that he shine his smile on me
When I'm all alone needing company
And he's the only man who can make me feel
That his love is honest, that his love is real

And when my spirit's sinking down
Need a lift off the ground

He calls says, "Get dressed"
And I put on my best
Being in his arms
Brings out all my charms
And you can see us glow

Wherever we may go
He's my man

He and I belong together
He and I will be forever

My friends all say, "He's no good"
But they'd have him if they could
But he's my man, ooh

He's my man
He's my man
He's my man
He's my man

He's my man
He's my man

He calls says, "Get dressed"
And I put on my best
Being in his arms
Brings out all my charms
And you can see us glow
Wherever we may go
He's my man, yeah

He's my man
He's my man
He's my man
He's my man

He's my man
He's my man
He's my man
He's my man

He's my man
