I've got a boy sweet as honey
Penny pincher but they tease him
Penny pincher 'cause he doesn't spend his money

A penny pincher that's what they say
So from him, other girls shy away
But I love him for what he is
All his love, he truly gives

He may not drive a car
But I love those walks through the park

A penny pincher, he may be
But oh, he means
He means the world to me

I don't care if he won't spend a dime
Just as long as I know he's mine

Let them tease him, call him cheap
But in my book he can't be beat
I love him for what is within
A tender loving trusting friend

I don't care if he won't spend a dime
Just as long as I know he's mine

A penny pincher, he may be
But his love means the world to me
A penny pincher, he may be
