Ooh..... ooh...

I heard your promises too long
I watched you do me wrong
Still foolishly I waited
Hoping for the day
You told me you'll repay
The love you kept away
You said that there'll be smiles
Happiness for miles
But you were lying all the while

We said we danced to the music
And we walked in the sunshine, too
But you just took me for granted
And now I'm hurt because of you
Oh.. oh

I said if you can't follow through
Take your dreams back
Take it back
I'm tired of your lies and alibis
Take your dreams back
Take it back
Oh

Baby..
Oh baby
So desperately I tried
To raise love from the dead
But I grew weak instead
Now love's fading inside

A room can be forgiven
And a few hurts overlooked, oh yeah
But when it comes without an ending
That's when it's time to close the book
Oh... oh, oh

I said if you can't follow through
Take your dreams back

Take it back
I'm tired of your lies and alibis
Take your dreams back
Take it back

Ohh... take it back
Take it back, take it back
Here's your dreams, baby
Take it back, take it back, take it back
Here's your dreams, baby

Now that I face the truth
I know that htere's some rules
Some things I'll never had
What good that never was
A man that never comes
Are surely ending fast

We said we danced to the music
But you just took me from granted
And now I'm hurt because of you
Ohh....oh

I said if you can't follow through
Take it back
I'm tired of your lies and alibis
Take your dreams back, hey
(Take it back)
Take it back
I'm tired of your lies and alibis
Take it back
