(M. Coleman/Clay McMurray)

What if you should come to me
One day and say you found somebody new
I know it might sounds strange
But I hate to be alone
And the more I think about it
The more desperate I become

Lonely, lonely me
I don't have any idea
As to where I would be, or what I do
Without you, baby, ooh
Why would it be so easy
That there'll be no rhyme or reason for living
If you should say we're through

(Ooo...)
When I look into your eyes
Sometimes you turn away from me
Oh, in the moment of closeness
My heart starts beating fast
But with him, it's not the same
I don't think it's gonna last

Lonely, lonely me
I don't have any idea
As to where I would be without you
Oh-oh-oh, why would it be so easy
That there'll be no rhyme or reason for living
If you should say we're through

Oh, tell me
Somebody tell me if it's a silly premonition
(Premonition)
Hey, that I got condemned
From loving a girl like you, oh hey, hey
Don't put out the fire that burns
Can't you see how much my heart could yearn?

Lonely, lonely me

I don't have any idea
As to where I would be or what I do
Without you, baby, hey, hey, hey
Why would it be so easy
That there'll be no rhyme or reason for living
If you should say we're through
(Oh-oh-oh)
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through

Lonely, lonely me
I don't have any idea
As to where I would be or what I do
Without you, baby
Hey, why would it be so easy
That there'll be no rhyme or reason for living
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through

Lonely, lonely me
I don't have any idea
As to where I would be or what I do
Without you, baby
Hey, why would it be so easy
That there'll be no rhyme or reason for living
If you should say we're through
If you should say we're through...
