Evelyn
When you gon' be my again?
I'd tell you anything
To get you alone again
I saw you at the bus stop with your sloppy friend
Paper's blaring news that there's war again
But I don't care who wins
'Cause I'd be alone again
Evelyn
When you gon' be mine again
I'd tell you anything
To get you alone again
Why are you alone every night?
I told you I was leaving but you love to fight
But Evelyn
I could never go home again
Evelyn
When you gon' be mine again?
I'd tell you anything
To get you alone again
Why are you alone every night?
I told you I was leaving but you love to fight
But Evelyn
I could never go home again
Yeah
Evelyn
When you gon' be mine again?
I'd tell you anything...
To get you alone again
