Of all the ways that you could fall
Well ya fell right into me
You were born to waste my time
And ya knew it
When I move all around
You can move behind me
It's a trap, It's a chance
Build your world around me
When I fall, And I'll fall
We'll be bruised and broken
I said it all, After the fall
Girl, Put those eyes away
'Cause I, I just don't know
And we sing
Whoa oh oh oh You're running with the wasters now
Whoa oh oh oh You're running with the wasters now
No the city ain't your friend
It's where you lost the whole damn plot
I was born to let you down
When we're down and we still sing
You're running with the wasters now
You're running with the wasters now
And if ya like we'll show ya how
You're running with the wasters now
